Oakwood, Texas

Dedication

We, the staff of THE PANTHER, feel that the present students and many who have graduated join us in this tribute to Miss Addie Manning.

For many years she has met the individual and group problems of each new class with understanding, patience, kindness and firmness. Our memories of the years in her classroom consist of more than the things which we learned. We remember the interest and enthusiasm in the various subjects she taught us, and the inspiration of her own life and personality.

We proudly dedicate this edition of THE PANTHER to "Miss Addie."

If we work upon marble, it will perish; if on brass, time will efface it; if we rear temples, they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon immortal minds, and imbue them with principles, with the just fear of God and love of our fellow-men, we engrave on those tablets something that will brighten to all eternity. - Daniel Webster.

FOREWORD

Another year has nearly passed and another Panther has been brought to you. This 1959 Panther was printed in order that we may always be able to look back and recollect the happy, carefree, and yet busy hours at O. H. S. We hope that everyone enjoys this book.
